

EIA from A to Z

A whimsical tale of places you can fly non-stop
from Edmonton International Airport

EIA from A to Z

Illustrated by Yu-chen Tseng

EIA from A to Z

The world is full of amazing places, and Edmonton International Airport (EIA) wants to help you see them.

This book is meant to be a fun introduction to our non-stop destinations and some of the things you can expect to see at EIA.

Throughout the story, you'll visit Grande Prairie, Iceland and the queen in London; see Air Canada, WestJet and an x-ray machine!

We hope you enjoy it.

A is for Air Canada,
you've seen them I bet.
They fly 'round the world
with their maple leaf jets.

B is for Baja,
on Mexican shores
the world's greatest fishing
is just out your door.

C is for Cuba,
and the island of Cayo Coco.
If you explore the lagoons,
look for flamingos acting loco.

D is for Denver,
a high mountain town.
Where plains meet the Rockies
for glowing sundowns.

E is for Edmonton,

where our trip begins.

We wait for our plane

while our hockey team wins.

F is for Fort McMurray,

a town full of oil.

Where folks from all over

dig fuel from the soil.

G is for Grande Prairie,

it's northwest from here.

The Peace River's beautiful
this time of year.

H is for Houston,

an East Texas home.

Where cowgirls and oil men
and astronauts roam.

I is for Iceland,
a land bathed in light.
Aurora Borealis
is a magical sight.

J is for Jamaica,
a tropical isle.
That sweet reggae music
might keep me a while.

K is for Kelowna,

a town in BC.

With sunshine and lakeshores
and fruit on the trees.

L is for London,

a sight to be seen.

You might get invited
to tea with the Queen.

M is for Maui,

Aloha they say.

The beautiful beaches
will keep you all day.

N is for Netherlands,

Amsterdam is its city.

Churches, bikes and canals,
my, isn't it pretty?

O is for Orlando,
near Florida tides.
Where Mickey and Minnie
and Goofy reside.

P is for Phoenix,
a desert oasis.
Where Canadians go
on a regular basis.

Q is for Quebec,
a French-speaking land.
You'll love the great food
and the folk music bands.

R is for Regina,
at home on the prairies.
Long days in the sun
picking Saskatoon berries.

S is for Seattle.

home of Pike Place.

Get the market early enough,
and see fish flying at your face!

T is for Toronto,

a hectic metrop.

You can see all around
from the CN Tower top.

U is for United,

which flies to the States.

You'll see their blue planes
at the transborder gates.

V is for Vancouver,

a town by the sea.

Surrounded by mountains
and tall cedar trees.

W is for WestJet,
an Alberta flyer.
They started out small
but they keep flying higher.

X is for X-Ray,
a security tool.
'Cause dangerous goods
are against airport rules.

Y is for Yukon,
a land to the north.
To where long ago
gold prospectors set forth.

And Z is for Zzzzzz...
while you sleep through the night.
As you fly to the dawn
on your homecoming flight.

Fly EIA every time!

Did you know that Edmonton International Airport has non-stop flights to many different destinations across Canada, the US and elsewhere in the world? That includes destinations in the United States, Mexico, Canada's far north and Europe.

When we educate our community about the importance of promoting our non-stop destinations then we show the airlines what our passengers want and need. We work toward our corporate goal of 10 million enplaned and deplaned passengers by 2025.

Contact Us

1, 1000 Airport Road
Edmonton International Airport,
Alberta T9E 0V3 Canada
t: 780 890 8382
e: info@flyeia.com
w: flyeia.com

EIA from A to Z

The world is full of amazing places, and Edmonton International Airport (EIA) wants to help you see them.

This book is meant to be a fun introduction to our non-stop destinations and some of the things you can expect to see at EIA.

Throughout the story, you'll visit Grande Prairie, Iceland and the queen in London; see Air Canada, WestJet and an x-ray machine!

We hope you enjoy it.

flyeia.com

EIA

we'll move you.